

THE MAKING OF 'CHOPE':

When talking about the "chope" culture in Singapore, an iconic gadget comes into mind for most: Tissue packets. Thus, the chope token was designed and created.

The graphic design for the tissues are inspired by common tissue packets in singapore, with a twist with MAKAN LAH as the logo and CHOPE! on the back.

PLASTIC TO "TISSUE"

WHAT IS MAKAN LAH?

Eating is one of the most important things in our lives. As Singaporeans, we take our food and traditions seriously. This is especially crucial for the elderly population. Thus, it is of utmost importance to teach them in simple concepts how to maintain both a healthy body and a healthy spirit.

WHAT'S IN THE GAME?

Every information you need to know about the game is inside! But it doesn't stop there... Wanna know more about your food? Open the manual up and explore all the possibilities!

Each card brings you into a unique, beautiful story! Learn about carbohydrates, proteins, fruits and vegetables through the food cards, and unlock endless fun with the action cards!

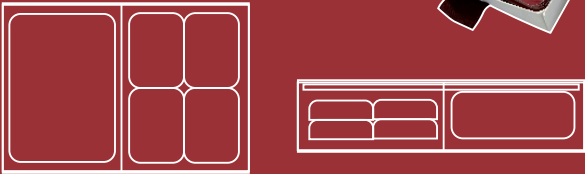

Ever seen tissue packets on a hawker centre table chope-ing the seats? This tissue-like token allows you to do the same!

HOW TO PLAY?

- TO WIN:
The player with 3 sets of card that has the highest score wins.
If at the end of the game, none of the players have full 3 sets, then the player with 2 complete sets with the highest score wins.
- TO START:
Shuffle the full deck of cards and deal 5 cards to each player. Players then each put 2 cards from their deck onto the table.
- TO CONTINUE:
During their round, each player needs to play out one card. They can choose to either: Place one food card on the table, Use one action card, or discard a card. Some action cards can be used as a defense, granting player an extra round.
- TO CHOPE:
After a player gains a full set of food cards, they can chope their set with the 'CHOPE' token, so other players cannot use action cards on that set of cards.
NOTE: After using the chope token, all players including the owner of the set can no longer switch out cards from said set.
